

1
2
3
4
5
6
7                   UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8                   WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9                   AT SEATTLE

10 MICROSOFT CORPORATION,

CASE NO. C10-1823JLR

11                   Plaintiff,

MINUTE ORDER

12                   v.

13 MOTOROLA INC., et al.,

14                   Defendant.

15                 The following minute order is made by the direction of the court, the Honorable
16 James L. Robart:

17                 The court is in receipt of Microsoft Corporation's ("Microsoft") motion for a
18 temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction (Dkt. # 209) filed on March 28,
19 2012. The court sets the following briefing schedule with respect to Microsoft's motion
20 for a temporary restraining order. Motorola's responsive brief shall be filed no later than 21 April 6, 2012 at 12:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time. Microsoft's reply brief shall be
22 filed no later than April 9, 2012 at 4:30 p.m. Pacific Standard Time. The court will

1 hear argument on Microsoft's motion on April 11, 2012 at 11 a.m. In Motorola's
2 responsive brief and Microsoft's reply brief, in addition to any other issues the parties
3 wish brief, the court directs the parties to specifically address this court's power to issue
4 an order related to litigation before a foreign tribunal.

5 If necessary, the court will take up Microsoft's request for a preliminary injunction
6 at a later date.

7 Filed and entered this 2nd day of April, 2012.

8
9 WILLIAM M. MCCOOL
Clerk of Court

10 s/Mary Duett
11 Deputy Clerk

12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22